

Worksheet 2

Evaluating positive and negative aspects

Considering specific positive and negative effects, evaluate whether or not the development of Sandy Hill has been favourable to the lives of Francophones in the neighbourhood.

Positive effects	Elements which can influence living conditions	Negative effects
	Land use planning Geography/cartography Buildings and residences Green spaces and natural areas
	Architectural development House styles Structure and organization of buildings Appearance, setting, embellishment
	Population development Migration and settlement Education, gender equality Modes of consumption, transportation

Answer this question: To what extent has the development of Sandy Hill improved the living conditions of Francophones since the 19th century?